Thank you, Musack!

This month, we want to show our utmost gratitude to Musack, who has contributed a grant for our new piano program, and featured us at their Annual Rock 'n' Roll Carnival.

This $3,000 grant will provide seven full piano-keyboard stations for our certified music classes! This will give us the opportunity to uplift all of our children with new instruments, and to create local performances to help us raise money for our sanctuary.

On August 23, 2025, Musack hosted their LA carnival fundraiser with performances by Jack Black, Fred Armisen, Lisa Loeb and more, featuring Happy Hüt Sanctuary as their newest partner school. They screened a video of our initiatives created by our director Kakeeto. (Watch it now on our Videos page!) Also, Jesse Strickman represented our sanctuary in-person, promoting our mission by distributing flyers and Happy Waffle stickers and connecting with supportive celebrities and humanitarians.

We express extreme gratitude to Katie Kerins and the rest of Musack family for their generous contribution!

Volunteer Spotlight

Nnambi Juliet

Nnambi Juliet is our exceptional Headteacher and Administrator of Education, known for her dedication and passion. With a Bachelor's Degree in Arts in Education, she is a vital asset and an inspiring leader. She assists the director with sanctuary duties and manages all school departments, ensuring smooth operations. She provides valuable technical advice on policies, contributing to the institution's strategic vision. She supervises and appraises teachers, demonstrating her commitment to educational excellence and child development. Not only does Juliet volunteer at Happy Hüt, but she also teaches at one of the top schools in Kampala, and sells our waffles at two canteens there during her lunch hour! What an amazing woman we have on our team!

Nabakooza Jemimah

Our Student of the Month is the delightful and kind-hearted Jemimah, who is only 4 years old! She enjoys spending her days filled with singing and dancing. Help Jemimah thrive today by joining our Happy Tummies Club and keeping her tummy full!

Happy Waffles: Ready for Storage!

Our Happy Waffle business has taken a significant stride forward: We now offer packaging! While we initially sold our waffles in single paper lunch bags, valuing the sustainability of paper, it wasn't practical for long-term storage. We've now upgraded to packaging that ensures greater freshness and sanitation. This improvement allows our waffles to be refrigerated or frozen for extended periods and makes them easier to share with more people. As a result, we can prepare waffles in advance, reduce daily workload, and ensure a reliable income source for the orphanage, as well as a supply of backup food for our Happy Family.

Our current challenge is the worldwide food crisis, shortage, and inflation. We aim to fill the Happy Tummies Club before year's end, with long-term dedicated members who want to adopt our orphan's food needs at just $15/month to feed three children 3-nourishing meals each day. We are so grateful to have 5 members so far!

WE STILL NEED 15 MEMBERS to fill the club to cover our current monthly food costs of $300, for all of the children. You may purchase more than one membership spot at anytime, and this makes an excellent gift for the caring person in your life! Thank you for considering feeding our children!

Partner Spotlight

Welcome our new partner: Crisp Imaging! Crisp Imaging donated to our printing services locally in San Luis Obispo County, drastically reducing our costs for flyers for the Musack event. The mission at Crisp Imaging is "to serve our customers better than they have ever been served before" and that they did! Each staff member is empowered to exceed the needs of each customer and to do so with genuine kindness, attentiveness, and consideration. They have 25 locations on the west coast, so there is most likely a location near you! Visit their website for your printing needs today. A big thank you to Ryan, our local manager here in SLO county, for helping us with quick and kind same-day service!
